

words and music
by Joel Justin

Down on her luck

Down on her luck she walks to the park she takes another drink she gets in her car she doesn't know where she will go she's burned all her bridges she's got no soul

And I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no

She was a friend but soon that would end when I fell in love like falling in quicksand she didn't love me she gagged me bound me kinged me crowned me I lost all ground

And I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no

Down on her luck she walks to a bar she takes another pill gets all messed up she doesn't know where she will stay she meets some guy they go away

And I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no

She was my friend but soon that would end when I fell in love like falling in quicksand
she didn't love me she gagged me bound me
kinged me crowned me I lost all ground

And I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
And I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no

and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no
and I don't wanna know another thing about her no-no-no-no.