I only want you

If I could have everything I want I wouldn't want it
I wouldn't want it
if I could have everything I need I wouldn't need it I wouldn't need it
if I could say everything I want I wouldn't say it I'd probably wreck it
if I could have everything I want I wouldn't want it I wouldn't want it

I only want you
my love is true
I only want you
my love is true

if I could do everything I want I wouldn't do it I wouldn't do it if I could go anywhere I want I wouldn't go there I'd want to be here if I could be with you everyday I wouldn't do it so I could miss you
if I could have everything I want I wouldn't want it I wouldn't want it

I only want you
my love is true
I only want you
my love is true

if I could have everything I want I wouldn't want it I wouldn't want it
if I could have everything I need I wouldn't need it why would I need it
if I could say everything I want I wouldn't say it I'd probably wreck it
if I could have everything I want well then I got it and I want you

I only want you
my love is true
I only want you
my love is true.
