It's not all you

This can't go on I feel your pain
you've done things wrong
but who's to blame

It's not all you
it could be me
not pleased with you
so set me free

this isn't wrong
it's just not right
love is a bond
it's not a fight

It's not all you
it could be me
not pleased with you

cause this can't go on still I feel your pain
been way too long
and you haven't changed

It's not all you
it could be me
not pleased with you
so set me free.
